

Matthew Bells Recreational and Athletic Endowment Fund

Introduction:

The Matthew Bells Recreational and Athletic Endowment Fund was formed for the benefit of the University of Waterloo Department of Athletics and Recreational Services. The goal of this fund is to promote fitness, increase competitiveness, facilitate participation, and provide leadership experience. The groups that qualify under the terms of agreement currently include Group A activities of archery, fencing, kendo, martial arts, and self defense and Group A1 activities of the fitness centre and exercise equipment. Applications are accepted on an annual basis by the last Friday in January. Funds received must be spent by April of the application year.
